HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT CORPORATION WELCOMES BACK CHAD COBB AS SENIOR CORPORATE DIRECTOR OF HOTEL FINANCE

15-Year HMC Veteran to Manage Accounting Team

Dallas, TX – Leo Spriggs, President and CEO of Hospitality Management Corporation (HMC), is pleased to announce the return of Chad Cobb to Senior Corporate Director of Hotel Finance. Prior to his most recent role as Controller for Osage Nation Indian Tribe in Pawhuska, OK, he spent 15 years with the company as Director of Accounting. He will be reporting to the Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer and responsible for the day-to-day financial activities of the numerous hotels within HMC’s managed portfolio. He will also oversee the preparation of monthly and quarterly financials, forecasts, future operating results and cash management and leading the transitional accounting efforts for newly acquired assets. Cobb will also supervise the corporate accounting staff.

He earned a B.B.A in Destination Management from Northeastern State University in Tahlequah Oklahoma.

Bill Sullivan, Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for HMC noted Cobb’s integral role within the company, “HMC’s strategy and future success is driven by our people and it is therefore essential that we have a skilled and engaged team. Chad will play a key role in our continued growth by supporting our accounting efforts. He brings a wealth of financial experience from his previous position with the company and I am delighted to announce his return to the HMC family as his role will be important in successfully navigating the future growth of the company.”
